Wright & Dalbin

ARCHITECTS, INC.

Frederic Dalbin, AIA, NCARB, LEED AP
Principal Architect, Wright & Dalbin Architects, Inc.

Born in Spain and raised in Mexico City and Paris, Frederic Dalbin came to El Paso in 1981 to conduct a study of Juarez colonias as part of the requirements for his college degree. After receiving his Diplome d' Architecte DESA with Mention from Ecole Speciale d'Architecture in Paris, Mr. Dalbin made El Paso his permanent home in 1984, and became a principal with Wright & Dalbin Architects, Inc., in 1986.

As a principal of Wright & Dalbin Architects, Mr. Dalbin has designed and managed numerous institutional, commercial and residential projects from site master planning, to new buildings, and renovations/additions to existing structures. The scope of the work included programming, site surveys and investigations, zoning code, building code and cost analysis, materials and methods, scheduling, bidding and negotiating, construction administration and management services.

Mr. Dalbin has been the principal architect for many notable projects in El Paso. The renovation of the Popular Dry Goods Store downtown into the Union Fashion Center, including the Union Fashion Center Lofts, received the 2003 Merit Award from the El Paso Preservation Alliance. The renovation of Seamon Hall on the campus of the University of Texas at El Paso into the Stanlee and Gerald Rubin Center for the Visual Arts, received the AIA El Paso Chapter 2004 Honor Award. Mr. Dalbin was also the principal and project architect for the eco-friendly County of El Paso Ysleta Annex, the first new construction in Texas to be awarded Three Green Globes by the Green Building Initiative.

Mr. Dalbin is co-founder of Eco El Paso, a conference for educating building professionals about sustainable building practices. He is vice-president of the El Paso Tennis Club, and serves on the board of the West Texas Urban Forestry Council. Other contributions to the community include stints on the City Brownfield Redevelopment Task Force, the Historic Landmark Commission, the Building Standards Commission, and the Building Board of Appeals.
